TABLE OF CONTENTS

The Page & Panel Journal, Volume 19 Number 2

On the Cover: A regional Stamp Poster to honor the New York Yankees, American League Championship 1999. Cancelled, appropriately, League Championship Station in the Bronx, NY, with the "H" top-hat stamp, just like the one found in the Yankee emblem. I found this item for sale at the Palisades Center Postal Store, Palisades Center Mall, West Nyack, NY. The price was $3.00.

OPENING REMARKS

By ASPPP Editor Ron Walenciak

Although I received only about three comments on the Journal's new look, I'm happy with it and I hope the lack of mail is indicative of your approval. I thought it was interesting that the USPS redesigned Pages and Panels to make them more modern at about the same time that I redesigned our publication, although I personally don't think that "modern" has to mean "stark". If they really don't intend to print images of the stamps on the Pages, I think that's disappointing.

I only received about two comments on the "Discoveries" column. We'll go ahead and continue to show you things and ask questions, as I think that's an invaluable part of Page & Panel collecting.

This issue contains the lots for our annual auction, as well as images of a few of the more interesting items.

This year is the 30th anniversary of both Souvenir Pages and Commemorative Panels, which were both first issued in 1972. I haven't seen any publicity on that point, and no commemoration of the event, which is unfortunate.

In about a year and a half, we'll be celebrating the 20th anniversary of the founding of the ASPPP. We should start thinking now about things we can do to celebrate that event! Maybe we should produce a Page or Panel of our own? Let me know what you think.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

By Ron Walenciak

As July approaches, we're getting set for our annual meeting at Americover (Chicago, July 13th). So far Board Members John Ngai, Gerald Blankenship, Gary West and Jim Canon are set to attend, as am I. David Weinberg is trying to make it but has not made arrangements yet.

There is also the possibility that two people from the USPS will attend, along with a representative of Minnesota Diversified Industries, the company that affixes stamps to Pages and Panels and packages everything to mail the waves to us (if they do attend, we'll find out everything else they do and let you know in the next issue!)

I'd like to see a record turnout for this meeting. If you live in the Chicago area, please try to attend. The meeting time hasn't been set, but it is usually around 4pm on Saturday.

Topics to be discussed at the meeting include the "annual" catalog discussion, the lack of progress on our proposed web site, the status of the conversion of our slide show to CDROM, and the redesigned Souvenir Pages and Commemorative Panels as discussed in the story on the next page. We will also discuss anything that is brought up at the meeting; if you can't attend and want something brought up for discussion, please email me and let me know about it.

Jim Canon is expected to reprise his multi-media presentation "Worldwide Counterparts to USPS Souvenir Pages and Commemorative Panels" that he showed in Chicago in 1986. It will be a seminar at Americover, separate from the Annual Meeting. I missed it the first time around, but I hear it's great!

The American Ceremony Program Society will also hold their annual meeting at Americover, along with an auction and the annual Saturday night Hospitality Suite. If you're interested in a USPS product related to Pages & Panels, Ceremony Programs just might be for you.

Gerald Blankenship contacted the dealers who will be at Americover and advised them of our attendance. In the past that's resulted in a lot of Pages and Panels for sale at the show, and some pretty amazing discoveries. If you've never been to a show before, that's as good a reason as any. Besides, where else can you find such a knowledgeable group of collectors of Pages and Panels all in one place. Come by with your questions, your comments, or even for an opinion on the worth of your collection. We'll be happy to see you there!

By the way, I'll be at the APS Stampshow in Atlantic City August 15-18, 2002. Information is listed in this Journal in the "Membership Report" section. The society will have a table, and I will be there along with some help from Bill Quinn, and possibly a visit from former Board Member and Treasurer John Remaley. If you're in the New Jersey area (or just love to go to Atlantic City) stop by and say hello. Our Journal is entered in the Philatelic Literature competition at the show.

As usual, Auction Chairman Gerald Blankenship has done a wonderful job putting together our Annual Auction. The lots are listed in this Journal. Your bids help support the society and allow us to continue to send the Journal by first class mail, among other things (in addition to allowing you to purchase Pages, Panels and Stamp Posters at unbelievable prices.) Good luck to all of you.

If there is anything that you would like the society to do, feel free to email me, or write to me with your suggestions. We're always looking for your input.

See you in Chicago! (or Atlantic City!)

AMERICAN COMMEMORATIVE COLLECTIBLES

By ASPPP Editor Ron Walenciak

Just before this Journal went to the printer, the USPS announced a new name and a new look for its various subscription programs: American Commemorative Collectibles.

Panels are still "American Commemorative Panels", but Souvenir Pages have been renamed "American Commemorative Cancellations". Despite the name change, we have been reassured that sheets will be issued for all stamps, not only commemoratives.

Ceremony Programs have been named "American Commemorative First Day Issue Ceremony Programs" and the Commemorative Stamp Club has been renamed "American Commemorative Collection".

In a newsletter included in the most recent Commemorative Panel shipment ("Volume 1 2002"), the following comments were part of the information contained under the "Collectible Corner" heading:

"We are excited about the redesigned series and hope you will be pleased with the first and only change to the series' layout and design in more than 25 years."

"Pre-eminent artist Derry Noyes and Terry McCaffrey, manager of Stamp Development and art director for the USPS stamp programs, have worked diligently to provide you with Commemorative Collectibles that reflect a fresh, modern look."

Two pages of the newsletter were taken up with images of an existing Commemorative Panel and a new American Commemorative Panel, as shown on the following pages. Basically, the large "American Commemoratives" title has been removed, and the USPS eagle logo has been reduced and moved to the bottom of the panel. The new "American Commemorative Panels" title is shown at the extreme top in very small, clean print. Information on the bottom of the Panel has been condensed into one line of type separated by slashes.

Information was also supplied (under the newsletter column heading "Customer Service Highlights") about the first shipment of American Commemorative Panels. Note the selvage comment; does it matter? Was it unavoidable?

"The first shipment of American Commemorative Panels will contain the extremely popular Greetings from America stamps. The stamp selvages of the oversized Greetings stamps panes were removed to accommodate page sizes of American Commemorative Collectibles, which have been retained to be consistent with previously issued Subscription Program items. The stamps for the American Commemorative Panels have been affixed only to the top portion of the panels to allow collectors to view the standard panel information."

While it is hard to see details on the reduced images of the American Commemorative Cancellations and the American Commemorative Collections sheets, it appears that they are designed to match the Commemorative Panels with the same one-line title on the top and one line on the bottom with copyright and numbering information.

Unfortunately, the new American Commemorative Cancellations (Souvenir Pages) appear to be designed to feature text information only, and no image of the stamp itself (enlarged or otherwise.) While this has been done in the past for certain issues, it is very plain looking and certainly does nothing to continue in the tradition of the Stamp Posters that were placed on the post office bulletin boards from 1959 through the mid 1980's. In my opinion, it was that enlarged image of the stamp that made these items so striking and desirable, and that same design could have been used here to entice new collectors to buy into this subscription program. Once again, the USPS has "missed the boat".

AMERICAN COMMEMORATIVES

Leonard Bernstein

Whether Leonard Bernstein was conducting a work by Copland or Mahler, Haydn or Schumann, audiences liked his engaging personality and flamboyant conducting style. Widely known as a conductor, Bernstein was also an accomplished composer, pianist, teacher, and author. During his long career, which spanned seven decades, he performed with orchestras in many countries, helping to bring worldwide recognition to American composers and musicians.

Leonard Bernstein was born in Lawrence, Massachusetts, on August 25, 1918. He studied piano in his teens. By the time Bernstein graduated from Harvard in 1939, he had served as music editor for the Harvard Advocate, composed and conducted incidental music for a production of The Birds, and made his first professional appearance as a solo pianist with an orchestra.

Bernstein then studied at the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia. He spent the summer of 1940 studying conducting with Serge Koussevitzky at Tanglewood, the Boston Symphony Orchestra's new summer institute.

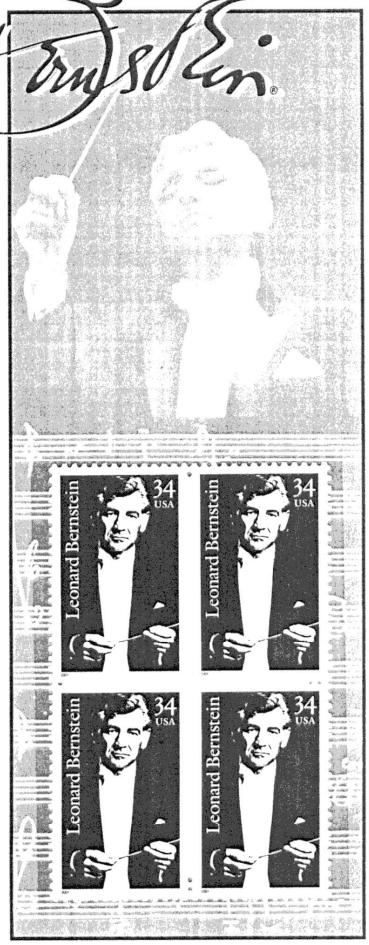
Bernstein graduated from the Curtis Institute in 1941. He was appointed to the New York Philharmonic as assistant conductor in 1943. Substituting for ailing conductor Bruno Walter at the national broadcast of a Carnegie Hall concert in November 1943, Bernstein impressed music lovers. Soon orchestras worldwide were offering him guest conducting posts.

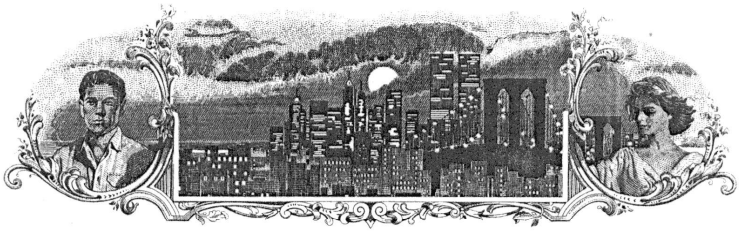
Bernstein held a variety of posts over the years. He was music director (1958–1969) then laureate conductor (1969–1990) for the New York Philharmonic, becoming in 1971 the first person to conduct 1,000 concerts with the orchestra. He led the orchestral and conducting departments at Tanglewood after Koussevitzky died in 1951. At various other times, he held posts with Brandeis University, the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra, and the Los Angeles Philharmonic Institute.

Bernstein conducted and played the work of many composers. In his early career, he championed American composers such as Aaron Copland; later, he helped start a Mahler revival. And he was a prolific composer himself. He wrote three symphonies—Jeremiah, Age of Anxiety, and Kaddish; two operas, Trouble in Tahiti and A Quiet Place; several ballets; and other works. He also composed for the theater, contributing his talents to West Side Story, On the Town, Candide, and other successes.

Married in 1951 to actress and pianist Felicia Montealegre, Bernstein had three children. He died on October 14, 1990 at his home in New York. On this handsome 34-cent stamp, Leonard Bernstein appears as many Americans remember him: in formal attire, looking thoughtful, as if preparing to take the stage. The black-and-white photograph was taken in 1968 by Don Hunstein.

This stamp was designed by Howard Paine of Delaplane, Virginia and issued on July 10, 2001 in New York, New York.





The name, likeness and signature of Leonard Bernstein ® are registered trademarks of Amberson Inc.

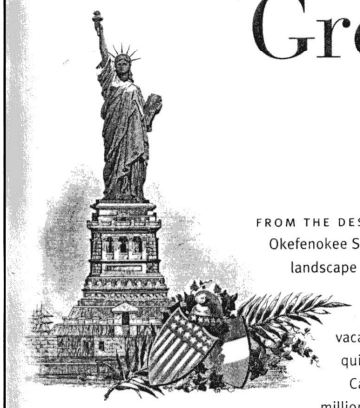
AMERICAN COMMEMORATIVE PANELS

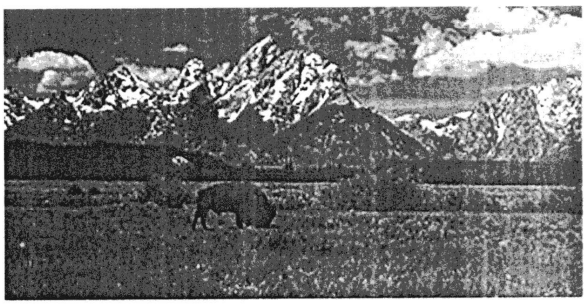
Greetings from America



FROM THE DESERTS OF Nevada to Georgia's Okefenokee Swamp, America's natural landscape is a study in extremes, offering modern travelers a cornucopia of magnificent outdoor vacation settings. For example, the quiet, pristine beaches of North Carolina's Outer Banks draw millions of tourists each year. Many others spend time among the stunning sandstone monoliths of Arizona's Monument Valley or canoeing down the Buffalo River in Ozark National Forest, Arkansas, and Wyoming's Grand Tetons challenge mountain climbers and campers alike.

America is also home to spectacular wildlife, so the popularity of nature vacations is no surprise. The great blue heron and countless other birds spend some or all of their time in Louisiana, where they draw avid watchers. The freely running horses of Theodore Roosevelt National Park in North Dakota and the buffalo of South Dakota's Badlands National Park entice the curious. Those who visit Alaska during salmon spawning season can even watch with wonder as brown bears fish for dinner.

The beauty of America's untamed landscape can only be matched by the excitement of its cities. Travelers flock to Atlantic City to test their luck and to Cleveland to view the memorabilia on display at the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum. They catch Broadway shows in New York City and magic shows in Las Vegas. The charm of San Francisco's cable cars and the romance of a horse-and-buggy ride through New Orleans are enjoyed by thousands each year. And taking in the sights from the top of Seattle's Space Needle helps put everything in perspective.



For the Greetings from America stamp pane, issued on April 4, 2002, stamp illustrator Lonnie Busch was inspired by the "large letter" linen postcards favored by American travelers during the 1930s and 1940s. These vibrant cards featured oversized names of cities, states, and tourist attractions filled with distinctive images. Using brightly colored montages to showcase the attractions that make each state an exciting and special place to visit, Busch has recaptured the spirit and energy that made the original postcards so popular with vacationers decades ago.

(Re-designed American Commemorative Panel)

2001 AUCTION ANALYSIS

By Ron Walenciak

In last year's auction, 541 of the 957 lots were bid on successfully. It's impossible to know why the remaining lots were not won, because even I don't know if there were bids below the reserve bids on those items or the items were just not wanted.

In 2001, 51% of the 109 Commemorative Panel lots were sold. Members bid in a range of 120% of catalog value (for the very early Panels) to 12.5% (for an individual Hispanic Americans Panel that went for $1.) Generally, bids were either in the 20-30% range or the 50-60% range, the latter for the more popular subjects, usually unopened in the original sleeves. Partial year sets and Panels with toning generally didn't sell at all; neither did individual Panels from recent years.

Of the two Panels with first day cancellations, only one sold, the Apollo/Soyuz issue with the joint USSR cancellation. It sold for over 120% or value ($91 against a value of $75.) I really wanted that one, but I suspect the eventual winner was prepared to bid much higher than I was.

An unbelievable (to me) 64% of the Souvenir Pages missing a first day cancel sold, but probably because they are low priced. Most sold for $1.50. Mint Stamp Posters did not do well, with only 1 of the 8 lots selling; that one lot was a group of 300 Posters and sold for $55 or 36% of value (although a catalog value of $.50 each is possibly a bit high.)

First Day Cancelled Stamp Posters did better, as usual, with 56% of the 241 lots sold. Prices were in a range of 9% to 80%, with most going for 25-30% of catalog value. The 9% item was a very common Poster, while the 80% item was an older interesting Poster (which still sold for under $5.) A Family Planning went for $50, only 25% of the $200 value.

Booklet varieties (Souvenir Pages) continued to be amazingly popular, with 82% of the 114 lots selling generally in the 20-40% of value range. Prices were most $2-$9; the higher-priced items were the newer booklet panes with the colored squares or triangles in the selvage.

Pages with coil stamps with a line on one side did just "ok", with only 33% of the 58 lots sold. Sell prices were universally at $5. None of the 4 line pair Pages sold, which leads me to believe that the reserve bid was too high. 52% of the 122 PNC Page lots sold, from 5% of value to a whopping 118%! While most are in the 20-30% range, you really have to know how scarce each plate number is. 87% of watermarked Pages sold, some up to 100% of value; again, you have to know the scarcity of individual watermarks.

A large (67%) percentage of the multi-stamp Pages sold. That includes Birds & Flowers, Wildlife, and Columbus mini sheets. Prices were in the 25-30% range. 85% of the Express Mail Page lots sold, most in the 30-50% range. This is not a real surprise, as Express Mail Pages were generally not included in a Page subscription.

About half of the "rare" Pages sold, most for only 20% of value, which leads me to believe that these items are generally over-valued in the catalogs. Miscut items didn't fare as well as real errors like the Double-tailed Cat (Mail Order) or Pages with error dates.

About 64% of the Souvenir Page collections sold, for 20-30% of value, while only 31% of the Page year sets sold, but for 30-60% of catalog value. Earlier year sets sold while later years didn't (or again, reserve bids were just too high.) 58% of the individual Souvenir Pages sold at 20-80% of catalog, with the low range for normal Pages (usually around $5 maximum) and the upper range for early Pages or certain booklet pane combinations such as Hank Williams.

2002 ANNUAL AUCTION

By ASPPP Auction Chairman Gerald Blankenship

The 2002 ASPPP Annual Auction is printed on the following pages of this Journal.

This is the most extensive listing of Souvenir Pages, Commemorative Panels, Mint Stamp Posters and First Day Cancelled Stamp Posters ever assembled in one place. They are looking for a new home to enhance your collection.

There are 1,066 lots for you to consider. Thanks to your generosity, the ASPPP section (lots donated to the ASPPP) has grown . Please bid on these lots. They will help your society accomplish goals that your board is working on. Our web site is in the planning stages, along with a CDROM with a complete listing of Souvenir Pages, Stamp Posters, Commemorative Panels including all the different varieties that are known to exist. Your bids on these item and the lots in this auction will help us towards those goals.

Please participate in the auction and please bid early (in case of ties, the earliest bid wins). You cannot win a lot if you do not bid!

ATTENTION ASPPP MEMBERS

We still need donations of Souvenir Pages, Stamp Posters and even Commemorative Panels, if you have any to spare. At each annual meeting we give away hundreds of Pages to prospective members and we have tried an experiment in Linn's where a new membership included 15 free Souvenir Pages. We have been including a set of North American Wildlife Pages with each new paid membership as an Americover show special (which worked very well in Houston, not as well in Denver.) A member donated 15 sets for that purpose and we are running low. Also, we are accepting item's as donations to the ASPPP to help raise funds for special projects. In the future we hope to have available a CD with several inventory lists of Souvenir Pages, Commemorative panels, as well as PNC Pages, Pages with coil lines, and Pages with booklet varieties. This is only one of the many projects your board is working on.

Send any donations to ASPPP, P.O. Box 475, Crosby TX 77532.

Circus Wagon Coil Stamp

The five-cent Circus Wagon coil stamp was issued at the EMPEX '90 stamp show in Syracuse, New York, on August 31 as part of the Transportation Series.

Circus wagons date back to the late 18th century when they were used as a means to bring entertainment to a predominantly rural American population. To reach these areas, circus entrepreneurs developed traveling shows that wandered in search of an audience.

The early traveling shows were crude affairs, but with their menageries, thrills, and magic allure, they provided a break from the monotony of dull and uneventful lives, and people flocked to them. For many years, the circus was the principal form of amusement known to most Americans, especially in rural areas.

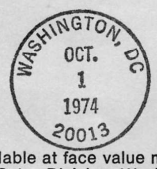
6.3-cent Precanceled Bulk Rate Stamp

A 6.3-cent postage stamp designed primarily for bulk mailers holding precancel permits will be issued October 1.

For bulk mail users, the stamp will be available in precanceled form. It will be available in uncanceled form to meet philatelic requirements at postal stores and by mail order from the Philatelic Sales Division, Washington, DC 20036.

The stamp will be produced in coils of 500 and 3,000 stamps and, for bulk mailers, will be available in those coil sizes only. The uncanceled version is being sold in increments of 10 only at postal stores and by the Philatelic Sales Division. To obtain line pairs, collectors will have to purchase 30 stamps instead of the usual 25. Restrictions on quantities available to collectors result from the fractional value of the stamp.

Remittance of 13 cents per cover will be required for first day cancellations. The Postal Service will affix two of the 6.3-cent stamps in order to return covers by first-class mail. First day cancellation requests should be addressed to "Bulk Rate Stamp, Postmaster Washington, DC 20013," and should include both the proper remittance and the appropriate number of self-addressed envelopes. Orders will be accepted through October 31.



FIRST DAY OF ISSUE

A stock list of stamps available at face value may be obtained by sending a stamped self-addressed envelope to the Philatelic Sales Division, Washington, DC 20036.

3-cent Francis Parkman Regular Postage Stamp

The 3-cent Francis Parkman regular stamp was reissued in coil form on November 4 in connection with new postage rates which go into effect on December 28.

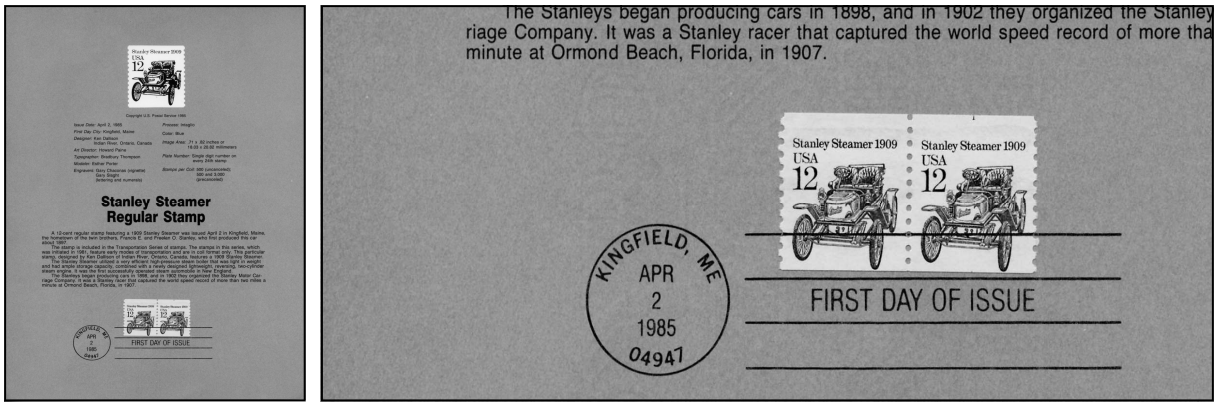
The stamp, in sheet form, was first issued on September 16, 1967 at Boston, Massachusetts. The coil form was issued at Pendleton, Oregon. Pendleton is near the Oregon Trail, described in Parkman's best-remembered book, The California and Oregon Trail. The 19th century historian was named to the Hall of Fame in 1915. The designer based the likeness on a portrait in a 1904 publication, Francis Parkman by H. D. Sedgwick.

Collectors should be aware that the processing of first day cancellation requests may be delayed because of the annual heavy Christmas mail volume. Orders for first day cancellations should be accompanied by the proper remittance by check or money order, instead of cash, and must include self-addressed envelopes. Twelve cents should be included for each envelope submitted to cover the necessary first-class postage for return of covers.

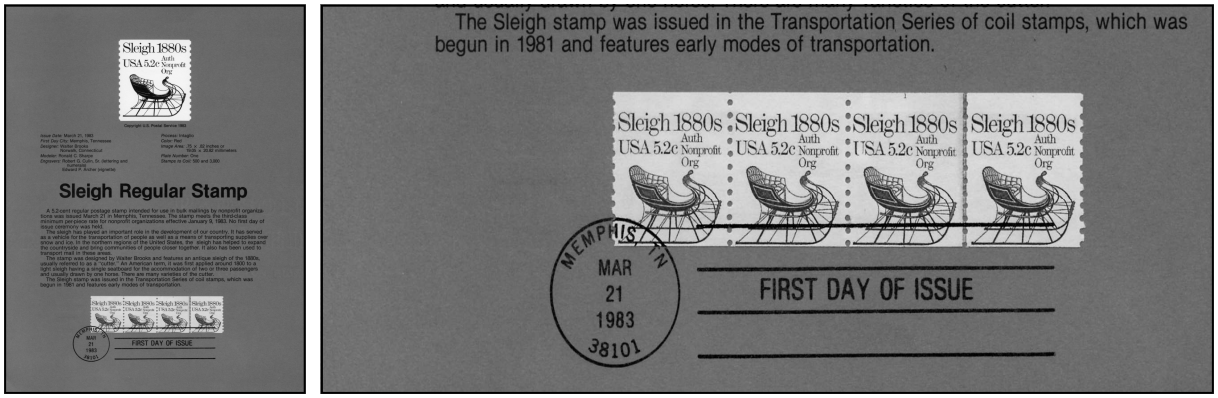
Return addresses should be written low and well to the left and a filler of postal card thickness in each envelope helps to assure clear cancellations and to prevent damage.

Orders should be addressed to "Parkman Stamp, Postmaster, Pendleton, OR 97801."

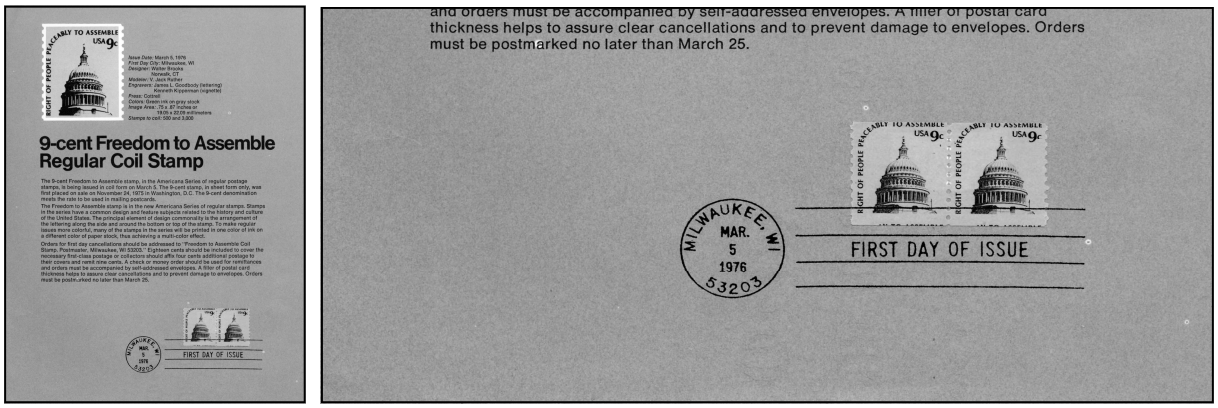
(Lot # 618, 3-cent Francis Parkman with partial plate number.)



(Lot # 629, 12-cent Stanley Steamer Plate 1 Position 2 100% on top of stamp.)



(Lot # 627, 5.2-cent Sleigh Plate 1 Position 3 100% on top of stamp.)



(Lot # 619, 9-cent Freedom to Assemble miscut pair.)
